COSTA MESA STUDENT IN PERFORMANCE WITH AARON COPLAND

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

San Diego, California

Stephanie Bell of Costa Mesa, a junior at the University of San Diego, will perform Aaron Copland's "Duo for Flute and Piano" when the noted composer visits the university November 21.

Stephanie, flautist, and Holly Koman, pianist, will play the composition during a music symposium at which Copland is featured speaker.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bell, 2964 Bimini Place, Stephanie is director of the Madrigal Singers at USD, where she is majoring in music.

The University of San Diego is a small, coed, independent Catholic university centrally located near cultural as well as the aquatic centers in San Diego. The campus consists of a College of Arts and Sciences and four professional schools: School of Business Administration, School of Education, School of Law, and a School of Nursing and Allied Health Sciences. Enrollment is 2800.
